From Tuesday October 25. to Saturday October 29. 1743.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 25th Day of October, 1743.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Whereas their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were pleaſed on the 21ſt of July laſt, for preventing the Infection being brought into this Kingdom by Ships or Veſſels coming from Sicily or other Places in the Mediterranean, to order and require, That all Ships and Veſſels then arrived and not unladen, and all Ships and Veſſels that ſhould thereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from or through the Mediterranean (except the Iſland of Sicily) ſhould make their Quarantine for Fourteen Days; and that all ſuch Ships and Veſſels as were arrived and not unladen, or that ſhould thereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from the ſaid Iſland of Sicily, ſhould make their Quarantine for Forty Days, in ſuch Manner and under ſuch Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions, as were by the ſaid Order directed. And whereas their Excellencies have received Information, that the Plague hath ſince broke out at Smyrna and ſome other Places, at which Places divers Goods apt to retain Infection are uſually taken on board; And it being of the utmoſt Importance to prevent the Contagion being brought into this Kingdom from any of the Places ſo infected; Their Excellencies out of their great Care for the Preſervation of his Majeſty's Subjects, and the better to prevent the ſaid Infection being brought hither, do, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, hereby order, That all ſuch Ships and Veſſels, as are already arrived and not yet unladen, and all Ships or Veſſels which ſhall hereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from Smyrna, or any other Place that is or ſhall be infected with the Plague, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and that they do obſerve the like Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions, as are required by the aforementioned Order in Council of the 21ſt of July laſt, to be obſerved by Ships coming from the Iſland of Sicily, except only with reſpect to the Places thereby appointed for the Performance of Quarantine by ſuch Ships and Veſſels as are bound to the Rivers Thames and Medway: With regard whereto, it is hereby ordered, That all ſuch Ships and Veſſels do perform their Quarantine in Standgate Creek only, and in no other Place: And the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General and the Reſt of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and his Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Turin, Oct. 19, N. S. The Enemy having entirely repaſſed the Mountain of Aguel the 12th, his Majeſty, who did not after that think his own Preſence at the Army any longer neceſſary, ſet out from Chateau Dauphin the 13th, and arrived here, God be praiſed, the Day following in perfect Health, having, before his Departure from thence, detached ſome Troops after the French and Spaniards, and given his Orders for the cantoning ſeveral Battalions in ſuch a Manner, that they may be brought together again, upon Occaſion, at a very ſhort Warning.

It would be difficult to give an exact Account of the Slain and Wounded on the Enemy's Side in the late Actions, becauſe they were extremely careful to conceal the Number of them. But one may fairly, and without any Exaggeration, compute them at about 1200. And we know for certain, that the greateſt Part of their Wounded are ſince Dead; for as they tranſported them over the Mountain in very ſevere Weather, a great many died on the Road, and were found ſcattered up and down by our Detachments. At the Village of Chanal we met with twenty of them in a dying Condition, and left naked by their own People, as likewiſe ſeveral Cheſts of Ammunition, and ſome Equipages. The Sight of thoſe thoſe poor Objects raiſed great Compaſſion, and his Majeſty ordered them to be immediately removed from thence, and the ſame Care to be taken of them as of his own Soldiers.

The Enemy has ſuffered extremely by Deſertion. Without reckoning about 2000 Men, whom they had loſt upon their leaving Savoy to march towards Briancon, it is computed, that from their quitting that Place, to their repaſſing the Agnel, between 4 and 5000 have deſerted from them; and we hear that they ſtill continue to do ſo as much as ever.

The whole Loſs on our Side conſiſts of 203 Men killed and wounded, including ſeven Officers killed and two wounded, as has been exactly verified ſince the Actions. As to Deſertion, we have hardly had any at all, the whole Number we have loſt that Way, from the Time the Army was aſſembled to oppoſe the Enemy's Paſſage, not exceeding Thirty.

We have not as yet learnt, that the Spaniards and French, who, according to our laſt Advices, after repaſſing the Mountains of Agnel and St. Veran, reunited their Forces in the Valley of Queyras, have taken any Step ſince, by which their farther Intentions may be judged of with Certainty. But it ſeems probable, that the French will move into Provence, and the Spaniards return to Savoy, which muſt however ſoon be known, ſince they cannot ſubſiſt long where they are. The 16th Inſtant we had Letters of the 14th from Chateau Dauphin, by which we were inform'd, that our Parties, who follow'd the Enemy upon the Mountain, had taken ſome Priſoners, and amongſt them two Officers, as alſo near 500 Mules loaden with Baggage of different Kinds, and particularly the Decorations of the Infant's Chappel, and the Plate of the Lord Berwick, and ſome other Officers, without the Loſs of a Man on our Side, the Spaniſh Eſcorte having immediately fled.

An Officer who arrived the 17th from Chateau Dauphin, having been diſpatched by the Marquis d'Aix, brought an Account, that the ſame Parties, who were detach'd after the Enemy, had fiez'd, upon the Summit of Mount Agnel, twelve Pieces of Cannon mark'd with the Arms of France, the leaſt of which are Six Pounders; that there had been, upon that Occaſion, ſome Muskets fired between our Parties and the Miquelets, who at firſt made a Shew of intending to defend that Artillery, but that, upon the Approach of our Grenadiers, the Enemy was oblig'd to abandon it, after having firſt attempted to nail the Cannons, and throw them down the Mountain.

Andernach, Oct. 30, N. S. Yeſterday the Firſt Diviſion of the Britiſh Troops, conſiſting of three Regiments of Dragoons and the Scots Highlanders, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Sir James Campbell and Lieutenant-General Hawley, marched through this Place in their Way to Briſick and Zinſick, where they will halt To-morrow; and this Day they are ſucceeded here by the Second Diviſion, conſiſting of Sir Robert Rich's, Lord Stair's, and the Queen's Regiment of Dragoons, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Sir John Cope.

Hague, November 5. M. Alt, Miniſter from the King of Sweden, as Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, to his Britannick Majeſty, arrived here Yeſterday, and goes over to England with this Mail. M. Oſſorio, the Sardinian Miniſter, deſigns to follow him on Thurſday next. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa having ſet out laſt Saturday Morning early, by Water from Rotterdam, for Utretcht, arrived there the ſame Night in perfect Health; and having repoſed herſelf there the Day following, being Sunday, ſet forward Yeſterday Morning for Hanover, where it is ſuppoſed Her Royal Highneſs will arrive on Saturday or Sunday next at fartheſt.

Whitehall, October 29.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Lieutenant-General William Hargrave to be Governor of the Town and Garriſon, of Gibraltar in the room of Lieutenant-General Jaſper Clayton, deceaſed.

London, October 29.

Yeſterday Robert Weſtley, Eſq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year enſuing, was ſworn at Guildhall, when the Chair and other Enſigns of Mayoralty were ſurrendered to him in the accuſtomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the ſeveral Companies in their reſpective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Weſtminſter; and having walked round the Hall, and ſolemnly ſaluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryers, and from thence in Coaches with the uſual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were preſent the great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction.
